

Urban Affairs Association
38th Annual Meeting / Baltimore, Maryland

Program Changes

Thursday, April 24, 2008

Withdrawals:

Panel 17

"Boomburbs" in Canada? The Cases of the Montréal and Toronto Metropolitan Areas
Robert Whelan (University of Texas at Arlington); Isabelle Maret (University of Montréal)

Panel 27:

Public Fiber Optic Broadband Provision: The New Infrastructure Imperative
William Tharp (University of Tennessee-Chattanooga)

Panel 28

Nan Ellin has withdrawn. Judith Martin will serve as moderator.

Panel 39

Christopher Leo has withdrawn. Robert Young (University of Western Ontario) will serve as moderator.

Other changes:

Panel 21

Brett Theodos will present Family Mobility and Neighborhood Change: Findings for Ten Making Connections Sites

Panel 24

Wasim Al-Habil (Cleveland State University) will present Akram Ijla's paper, Chicago School and Its Implication for Studying the Palestinian Refugee Camps.

Panel 41

Heather McCullough will not participate in this session. She will be replaced by Mihailo (Mike) Temali (Neighborhood Development Center), who was mistakenly omitted from the session list.

Thursday Luncheon (12:30pm–1:50pm)

The keynote speaker will be John T. Willis, J.D. Professor Willis is currently a Senior Executive in Residence in the School of Public Affairs at the University of Baltimore and the director of the undergraduate program in Government and Public Policy.

Friday, April 25, 2008

Withdrawals:

Panel 43

Public Attitudes Toward Affordable Housing: How Perceptions of Race and Poverty Influence Views
Rosie Tighe (University of Texas at Austin)

Panel 67:

Ethnic Enclave or Global City?: Boston's St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Role of Culture in Mediating Globalization
Annis Whitlow (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

Panel 69:

The Quest for Regional Politics: A Comparative Perspective
Paul Kantor (Fordham University)

(Don Phares will serve as moderator.)

Panel 70

Social Capital and Philanthropic Contributions to Community Development Organizations: A Case of Florida's NAP
Myungjun Jang (Florida State University)

Urban Affairs Association
38th Annual Meeting / Baltimore, Maryland

Program Changes

Panel 74

Complexity, Contradiction, Opportunity, and the 21st-Century City
Larry Bennett (DePaul University)

Panel 79

Can Maps Promote Regional Equity? One Nonprofit's Attempt to Harness the Power of Maps to Promote Equity
Meg Merrick (Portland State University)

Other changes:

Panel 63:

The following paper, originally scheduled in Panel 82 (Saturday morning), shall be presented in this session:

Impacts of Hurricane Katrina on Single Family Housing Finance and Homebuying Patterns in New Orleans
Dan Immergluck (Georgia Institute of Technology)

Panel 71:

Melissa Zwahr (ICF International) will replace Barbara Rudin.

Panel 72:

Co-author has been added to the following paper and title correction has been made:

Elderly Women: Economic Well-Being, Housing Satisfaction, and Policy Responses
Marilyn Bruin (University of Minnesota)
Christine C. Cook (Iowa State University)

Panel 76

Bibi Hidalgo's affiliation is with the Baltimore City Inclusive Housing Coalition.

Panel 79

Nicole Ruggiano will serve as moderator.

Saturday, April 26, 2008

Withdrawals:

Panel 88:

National Support for R&D: Issues and Strategic Directions for Urban Regeneration in Korea
Da-Mi Maeng (Korea Urban Renaissance Center); Seo-whan Lim (Korea Urban Renaissance Center)

Panel 90

Max Herman will not serve on this colloquy.

Other changes:

Panel 82

The following paper shall instead be presented in Panel 63 (Friday afternoon):

Impacts of Hurricane Katrina on Single Family Housing Finance and Homebuying Patterns in New Orleans
Dan Immergluck (Georgia Institute of Technology)

Panel 83

Co-authors have been added to the following paper:

A Case Study Approach to Defining Viable Occupational Clusters for Low-Skill Workers
Mark Turner (Optimal Solutions Group)
Laurel Davis (Optimal Solutions Group)
Andres Cruz (University of Maryland, Baltimore County)

(Laurel Davis shall present the paper.)