

Urban Affairs Association 40th Annual Meeting

Sustaining Cities in a Time of Globalization: Social, Economic and Political Realities

Honolulu, Hawaii
March 10–13, 2010

Co-hosts:

*University of Hawaii at Manoa
Department of Urban and Regional Planning*

Institute for Urban Humanities at the University of Seoul

Urban Affairs Association

The Urban Affairs Association (UAA) is the international professional organization for urban scholars, researchers, and public service providers. UAA exists to:

- Encourage the dissemination of information about urbanism and urbanization
- Support the development of university education, research and service programs in urban affairs
- Provide leadership in fostering urban affairs as a professional and academic field

UAA includes institutional, individual, and student members from colleges and universities throughout North America, Europe, and Asia. Among its other activities, UAA sponsors the Journal of Urban Affairs, a refereed journal published five times a year by Wiley-Blackwell. The Journal is a primary benefit to all UAA members and a well-respected outlet for manuscripts related to urban research and policy analysis.

2010 UAA Annual Meeting Best Paper Award

Call for papers for the Journal of Urban Affairs

Deadline—July 10, 2010

Each year, an issue of the Journal of Urban Affairs (JUA) is devoted to scholarship presented at the annual meeting of the Urban Affairs Association (UAA). As many as six papers presented at the 40th annual meeting of UAA in Honolulu will be published in next year's special annual meeting issue. Additional papers from the annual meeting, if accepted, will appear in another issue of JUA. Papers submitted from the annual meeting undergo the same peer review process as other manuscripts submitted to JUA.

One manuscript submitted for the special annual meeting issue will receive the "Annual Meeting Best Paper Award." The recipient of the award is selected by an appointed committee and presented with the award at the next annual meeting. The paper selected for this award is the lead article in the issue featuring papers from the annual meeting.

To be considered for the annual meeting issue and the Annual Meeting Best Paper Award, your manuscript must be submitted to the Journal of Urban Affairs by July 10, 2010. Papers should be submitted online at:

<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/juaf>.

In the cover letter submitted online with your manuscript, you must identify the paper as from the 2010 Annual Meeting. We look forward to reviewing your paper and thank you for participating in the 40th annual meeting of the Urban Affairs Association.

Sincerely,

The Public and Its Possibilities

Triumphs and Tragedies in the American City

JOHN D. FAIRFIELD

Placing the city at the center of American experience, this book explores how a desire for urban participatory democracy has responded to the fog of war, the allure of the marketplace, and persistent prejudices. Uniting intellectual history, popular culture, and political history, John Fairfield provides a compelling reinterpretation of our past.

Guidelines for Panel and Colloquy Moderators and Presenters

- Sessions are 85 minutes long. Do not wait for a crowd to form. Start promptly!
- Reserve at least 20 minutes for open discussion.
- Panelists have 12–15 minutes depending on size of panel. If a panel has five papers, each presenter has 12 minutes. If a panel has three or four papers, each presenter has 15 minutes. It is best to plan on 12 minutes regardless of the size of your panel since last-minute changes in the panel could affect your allotted time. Reading of papers is not acceptable.
- Moderators are primarily responsible for introductions, keeping the time, and alerting presenters of remaining minutes, as well as managing the open discussion period. Each room contains one-minute and five-minute “warning” signs that moderators may use to alert presenters of the time remaining in their presentations. Moderators are expected to maintain an atmosphere conducive to open and collegial discussion of ideas. They are not discussants. However, each moderator is responsible for making a brief introduction (one minute) of each paper. IMPORTANT: Please do not re-order the sequence of papers as they are listed in the program. Many conference participants plan their attendance of a session based on the order of the papers.
- If a moderator does not arrive, we ask that the first presenter take on this role.

Some Definitions

Colloquy—Formal discussion of an issue. Presenters make prepared comments and engage in an open discussion with the audience. They do not, however, present written papers or in-depth research findings. Instead, speakers draw upon their general knowledge, background, and experience of the issue being discussed.

Panel—Formal exploration of an issue through the presentation of papers followed by open discussion by presenters and the audience.

Roundtable—Informal discussion of an issue over breakfast. The discussion is open to anyone who wishes to join in and share his or her views.

Abstracts/Presenters’ Contact Information

Abstracts of papers presented at this meeting are available online at www.udel.edu/uaa. Paper presenters’ e-mail addresses are provided in the book of abstracts.

Registration Payment Receipt

If you registered and paid online, you should have received a receipt from the payment system. Individuals who paid by check received payment confirmation notices from the UAA office. If you need a duplicate receipt, please contact the UAA office at uaa@udel.edu.

Event Beverage Tickets

You will find tickets redeemable for beverages in the tote bag that you received at the registration desk. There are two red tickets for Wednesday’s reception, two blue tickets for Thursday’s reception, and one white ticket for Friday’s happy hour.

Useful Information—Reference

Admission to Meals/Social Events

IMPORTANT! Your name badge is required for admission to all meals/social events—including all coffee breaks. Make sure to carry your badge with you at all times. Accompanying guests will be required to present tickets to gain admittance. You may purchase guest tickets at the conference registration desk or at the locations of off-site events.

Copy Services

Copies (for a fee) may be made at the XEROX Business Center located on site at the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel.

Audio-Visual Equipment

Each session room is equipped with a laptop computer, an LCD computer projector, and a screen. Traditional overhead projectors are not provided. Audio-visual technical assistants are on call to provide any necessary support. Because breakfast roundtables take place in the general dining area, the use of audio-visual aids and equipment (other than a laptop without a projector) is not possible.

Internet Access in the Hotel

For a daily fee, Internet access is available in the hotel. Guests at the hotel who wish to avoid this fee may use the hotel's "Link" system in the lobby. A bank of computer terminals with Internet access and a printer are available to guests 24 hours a day. (Please note that there is a 45-minute session time limit when using this service.)

Useful Information—Sessions by Topic Category

To make your task of time management easier during the conference, we have grouped sessions into broad thematic areas. As we may have inadvertently omitted some relevant sessions, please do not view this listing as exhaustive of all the possible group configurations. Each session is listed by its program session number.

Celebrating 40 Years with the Urban Affairs Association!

Highlights of UAA's Organizational History

The history of the Urban Affairs Association began in the context of the momentous era of the 1960s. In the aftermath of the turbulent summers of social unrest in America's urban centers, a wave of initiatives was launched to address the compelling problems of cities. One distinct set of efforts involving urban researchers was funded by the Ford Foundation. The Foundation's efforts had two primary objectives: "1) to promote research on a wide range of urban problems by scholars from a variety of disciplines and 2) to encourage closer contact between university scholars and city decision-makers in order that research results could be directly applied to the ills of the city." Between 1959 and 1974, the Foundation expended over $36 million in seeking these objectives. One outgrowth of the grants made to various universities and colleges was the development of several urban research and outreach centers. Some of the directors of these centers formed a group that became known as the Council of University Institutes for Urban Affairs (CUIUA). The first meeting of CUIUA took place in Boston Massachusetts on November 13, 1969. An official constitution and bylaws were drafted and approved. The council agreed that the first annual meeting of the organization would take place in Washington, D.C. in April of 1970.

Selected Moments in Organizational History

April—1970

CUIUA approved that a committee be formed 1) to identify various alternatives open to the Council in assuming a clearinghouse role in the dissemination of information on urban affairs, and 2) to present to the Board a proposal at the next meeting of the Council.

The first Chairman; Vice-Chairman; Secretary-Treasurer; Membership Committee, and Advisor to Membership Committee appointed.

November—1970

Two Council members asked to undertake incorporation of Articles and By-laws under the laws of the District of Columbia.

April—1972

Resolution unanimously adopted regarding the need for a secretariat that would "a) serve as a clearing house, b) develop a publications program, c) provide technical assistance to universities and urban affairs centers, d) maintain liaison with other professional, educational, and public interest organizations, and e) facilitate research consortia composed of university urban affairs centers."

December—1972

Board unanimously adopted a resolution that the principal office of business of CUIUA shall be the Division of Urban Affairs, University of Delaware, Newark, DE.

June—1980

Board agrees that the most important function of CUIUA is to provide a network for all urbanists, regardless of discipline or affiliation.

March—1981

Institutional Membership voted 19 to 1 at the Annual Business Meeting to change the name of CUIUA to the Urban Affairs Association.

Board voted to affiliate CUIUA with a journal; it would explore how to begin this process with the editors of 'The Urban Interest' and 'Urban Affairs Papers.'

October—1981

Board unanimously approved Letter of Agreement between the UAA and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University for the editorship of the Journal of Urban Affairs.

June—1986

Board unanimously voted to select the University of Louisville as the co-sponsoring institution for the Journal of Urban Affairs.

October—1989

Board voted 11 to 1, with 1 abstaining, to recommend changing the bylaws so that institutional and individual members had equal voting rights in the Association and so that Board membership was equally open to both institutional and individual members.

April—1999

Board unanimously agreed that the UAA should sign a five-year contract with Blackwell Publishers to publish the Journal of Urban Affairs.

March—1995

Board unanimously votes to contribute support for the European Links Committee's first two newsletters and other linkage-building efforts. Subsequent support helps to establish the European Urban Research Association.

May—2000

Board agreed to provide financial support for the development and launch of an intranet (Cyberhood-a "virtual coffee house").

Mary Helen Callahan resigns from the Executive Director position after 25 years of service.

July—2008

Scott Cummings concludes highly successful 17-year role as Editor of Journal of Urban Affairs.

September—2008

Board approves recommendation to accept proposal from the University of Delaware for hosting the Secretariat for the period 2010-2015.

January—2009

UAA begins new 7-year contract with Wiley-Blackwell for publication of Journal of Urban Affairs.

UAA Establishes Distinguished Service Award to Honor of Mary Helen Callahan

The UAA Governing Board has established a new permanent award that celebrates the distinguished service and leadership of Mary Helen Callahan, Executive Director of UAA from 1980 until 2000. Ms. Callahan will become the first recipient of the award during the upcoming Annual Meeting in Honolulu. The award will be given on a periodic basis to an individual who has provided an outstanding record of service to UAA and/or the field of urban affairs.

As the first recipient, Ms. Callahan personifies the purpose of the award. For more than twenty years she provided the essential administrative leadership that maintained the UAA Secretariat at the University of Delaware. A native of Alexandria, Virginia, Ms. Callahan spent most of her formative years in Little Rock, Arkansas. She began her work for UAA in 1975 after having attained her AB (magna cum laude) in History at Radcliffe, and her Master of Arts in Teaching at Harvard. As administrative assistant (from 1975-1980) to the board chair of what was then the Council of University Institutes for Urban Affairs (later renamed the Urban Affairs Association), she played a central role in establishing the early operational infrastructure and board support that helped to launch a new national professional organization. She was instrumental in building the core activities of the organization from its annual conference to its now well-respected Journal of Urban Affairs. As the guiding hand in UAA's development for more than two decades, Ms. Callahan epitomizes the commitment and service to the field of urban affairs that this award seeks to honor.

The award will be presented during the Friday, March 12, Awards and Recognition Luncheon at the Waikiki Sheraton Hotel.

Call for Participation

41st Annual Meeting of the Urban Affairs Association New Orleans, Louisiana

March 16-19, 2011

Reclaiming the City: Building a Just and Sustainable Future

Rebuilding efforts--in New Orleans, Port au Prince and other parts of the world--provide an opportunity to examine the paths selected for public policy and private investment, and how these decisions shape the future of urban places. Six years after the devastating effects of Hurricane Katrina, New Orleans is in the midst of a large-scale rebuilding effort and redefinition of place. Powerful dynamics at the local, regional, national and international levels filter various values and interests to yield a powerful development logic. This logic determines the nature of change, its impacts, and most importantly, who benefits and who ultimately pays. New Orleans provides a dramatic and significant context to examine the processes and outcomes of change. However, developmental change in New Orleans has much in common with transformative processes that occur in other urban places. Critical perspectives suggest that change and transformation of cities across the globe, increasingly favors private capital, large institutions, and visitors. This bias poses certain challenges to the possibility of building a just and sustainable future for cities. The conference is an invitation to consider a broad range of concepts and strategies for rebuilding that can yield urban futures that are both equitable and sustainable. The challenges embedded in seeking such futures are significant. The conference will seek to identify ways to overcome those barriers while reclaiming the city.

In keeping with the tradition of UAA Annual Meetings, we encourage proposals that focus on the conference theme as well as submissions on the array of research topics typically found at UAA conferences:

- Arts, Culture, Media
- Economic Development, Redevelopment, Tourism, Urban Economics, Urban Finance
- Education, Schools, Universities
- Environmental Issues, Sustainability, Urban Health, Technology and Society
- Globalization, International Urban Issues
- Governance, Intergovernmental Relations, Regionalism, Urban Management
- Housing, Neighborhoods, Community Development
- Public Safety in Urban Areas, Criminal Justice, Household Violence
- Immigration, Population and Demographic Trends
- Infrastructure, Capital Projects, Networks, Transport, Urban Services
- Labor, Employment, Wages, Training
- Land Use, Growth Management, Space/Place, Urban Design, Urban Development, Urban Planning
- Poverty, Welfare, Income Inequality
- Human/Social Services, Nonprofit Sector
- Race, Ethnicity, Gender, Diversity
- Social Capital, Democracy and Civil Society, Social Theory, Religion and the City
- Urban Indicators, Data/Methods, Satisfaction/Quality of Life Surveys
- Urban Politics, Elections, Citizen Participation
- Urban Theory, Theoretical and Conceptual Issues in Urban Affairs
- Professional Development, The Field of Urban Affairs
- Urban and Regional Disaster Planning, Disaster Management, Emergency Preparedness, Cities and Security

Proposal Deadline—October 1, 2010

Proposals can be submitted for papers, panels (a group of 3–5 formal papers with moderator), colloquies (formal discussions without papers), breakfast roundtables (informal discussions) and posters. UAA Conference policy limit participants to one presentation/session role per annual meeting. Do not submit multiple proposals. However, participants can be co-authors on multiple papers. Proposal submissions are accepted only on-line at the UAA website. You do not have to be a member of UAA to submit or participate in the conference. There are no fees for proposal submissions. However, if your proposal is accepted, you must register and pay registration fees associated with your membership category (e.g., member or nonmember or student).

On-line proposal submission site opens: July 1, 2010

Proposal Decision Date: Acceptance or rejection notices will be sent by November 15, 2010.

Registration Policy and Rates

ALL participants (faculty, students, practitioners) must pay the appropriate registration fees for their membership category prior to arriving at the conference site. Session organizers should inform potential panelists that registration is required. Registration is completed on-line via the UAA website by credit card, personal check or institutional check. Rates for the 2011 conference will be advertised by July 1, 2010.

Other Important Information

Visa/Passport Regulations

All international participants should become familiar with U.S. travel and entry requirements. Please visit www.uscis.gov/portal/site/uscis for the latest visa/passport requirements. Letters of invitation for visa applications will be provided only to persons accepted as conference presenters.

Hotel Accommodations and Rates

The conference will be held at the Sheraton New Orleans Hotel. A reservation link will be available at the UAA website. Room rates for the conference will be: Main house: 155/165 (single/double); Club level: 185/195 (single/double), suites: 285 and up; additional person fee-$10.00. All guest room rates are quoted exclusive of applicable state and local taxes, which are currently 13% and a $3 occupancy tax per room per night. These guest room rates will be offered by Hotel 3 days prior and 3 days after the meeting dates, subject to availability of guest rooms at the time of reservation.

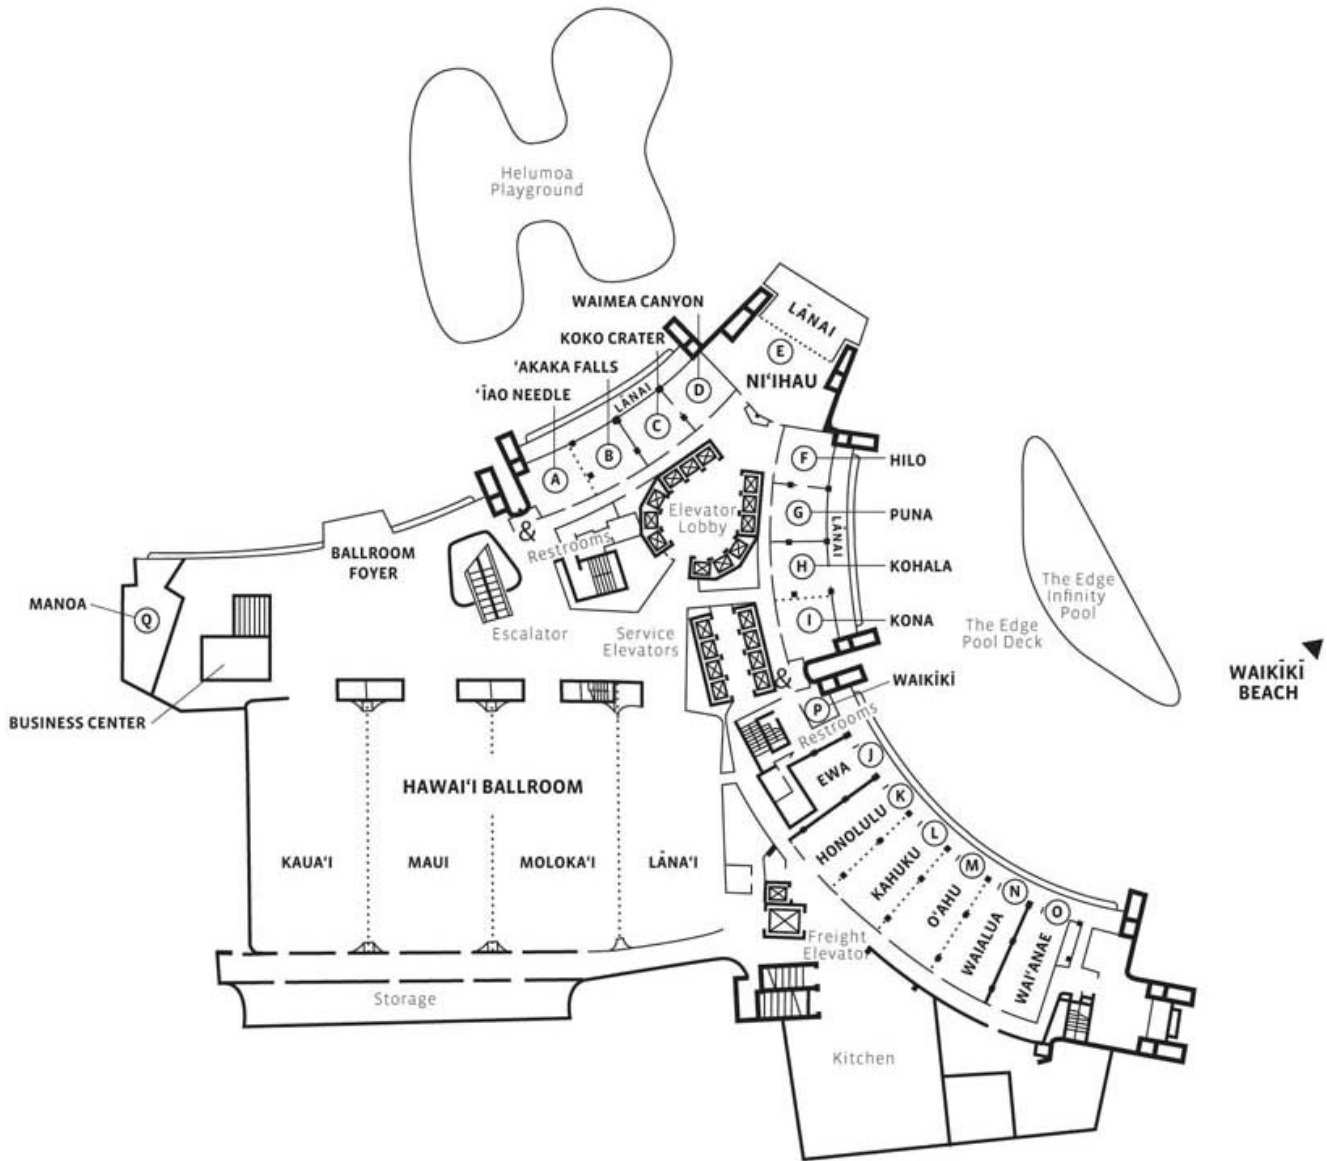

Exhibitors

Exhibit space is provided on a first-come, first-serve basis. Early contact with the UAA Office is advised. Fee information and space reservations will be available on the UAA website by July 1.
